

Maintenance/Millwright

Title: Maintenance/Millwright

Location: 92a Avenue, Langley

Reports to: Plant Manager

POSITION SUMMARY

Redwood Plastics maintenance/millwright employees are responsible for keeping all manufacturing equipment maintained and working as intended. This position is also responsible for installations of new equipment, preventative/routine maintenance, trouble shooting/diagnostics, electrical, build and maintain hydraulic systems, organize and inventory tool room, order replacement parts for equipment repairs, some steel fab as required. All work is to be done in a safe and timely manner.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- Preventative maintenance
- Maintain polyurethane processing equipment
- Maintain CNC equipment
- Install new equipment
- Build and maintain hydraulic systems
- Minor electrical troubleshooting
- Assemble/disassemble bearing and shaft assemblies
- Monitor and inventory tool room
- Steel fabrication
- Trouble shoot electrical issues
- Order and inventory replacement parts and maintenance tools

SKILLS, EDUCATION & EXPERIENCE

- Grade Twelve
- Interprovincial Red Seal preferred
- Welding Experience an asset
- Electrical Experience an asset
- Forklift trained
- First aid

Since 1971 Redwood Plastics and Rubber has worked directly with customers to find solutions for a variety of problems including shock, abrasion, noise, wear & friction. Redwood Plastics and Rubber molds, machines, fabricates, and distributes a wide-range of high quality, custom components.

Maintenance/Millwright

Redwood Plastics and Rubber's mission is to support long-standing relationships through ethical and respectful interaction with customers and suppliers. Redwood Plastics and Rubber employees are proud of these relationships and are committed to 100% customer satisfaction. With our technical expertise and experience, we will continue to bring new, innovative developments and products to numerous industries and communities. We are continually on the lookout for innovative minds that think outside the box to aid in further advancements.

We have built a community of inspired individuals who work in a positive environment that supports both personal and professional growth. We believe that our people are our primary assets, and we support our employees with benefits and competitive compensation with frequent extras for a job well done. Our work environments are enjoyable and highly motivational, with approachable management and an impeccable work/life balance. Our employees are proud of our outstanding traditions, and are enthusiastic to build towards our exciting future.