

Title: FabricatorLocation: LangleyReports to: Fabrication Supervisor

POSITION SUMMARY

The Fabricator is responsible for reading and analyzing blueprints and engineering drawings to assess the materials needed and to create the required product layouts. The Fabricator will be required to use a variety of light and heavy tools and machinery to make necessary cuts and to assemble fabricated components into complete units.

Travel to client sites will be required for installation. On site travel costs, food and lodging is covered by the company.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- Analyze blueprints and engineering drawings to assess materials requirement, and plan the sequence of tasks to layout, cut and fit product.
- Create and construct patterns and guides as templates for cutting.
- Operate light machinery, power tools and hand tools.
- Assemble components into complete units or subunit.
- Perform all work to organizational standards to ensure final product meets quality standards.
- Ensure products are produced to specification.
- Accurately record time to work orders.
- Perform all functions of the job safely.
- Travel and onsite installation is required as needed.
- Integral part of a team that installs industrial plastic, polyurethane or ceramic liners

SKILLS, EDUCATION & EXPERIENCE

- Experience in a production environment and/or with plastics is an asset
- Experience with a table saw, drill press and hand tools is an asset however training will be provided.
- Able to read a tape measure
- Ceramic tile experience preferred but not required
- Welding experiences is an asset, preferably plastic welding
- Possesses excellent communication and interpersonal skills
- Able to read and interpret blue prints, drawings and general work instructions
- Experience in a production environment an asset
- Able to lift 50 lbs consistently throughout the day.
- Possesses manual dexterity, attention to detail and a commitment to accuracy.
- Able to prioritize and maintain productivity levels as specified.